

ABORTION: the unenforceable law

the reality of unwanted pregnancy and abortion in Australia*

edited by Tony McMichael

- the fact: one abortion per three live births?
- the law: contents, ethics, implementation.
- community attitudes: abortion law reform now a vote-winner?
- contraception and family planning: ignorance and inadequacy?
- medical and social considerations.
- results of reform elsewhere: South Australia and overseas.
- citizens' rights under the law: women and doctors.
- case studies.
